Materials and Methods for Teaching Spoken Language

With the cooperation of the MW SIG, Shinshu JALT is proud to announce a special workshop by two very talented speakers. Cameron Romney, a Featured Speaker at JALT 2015, will be talking about ways to write supplements that go with commercial textbooks. To follow, John Campbell-Larsen will be talking about how to use materials to stimulate speaking.

Presentation 1: 14:15 – 15:15

Speaker: Cameron Romney (Doshisha University)

Creating Supplements that Increase Opportunities for Spoken Interaction

Cameron Romney has taught ESL/EFL in both the United States and Japan for the last 17 years. He holds an MA in Applied Linguistics from the University of Colorado at Denver and is an assistant professor in the Global Communications Faculty of Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan.

Presentation 2: 15:30 – 16:30

Speaker: John Campbell-Larsen (Kyoto Women's University)

A Page Full of Text to a Mouth Full of Air

John Campbell-Larsen is an associate professor of English at Kyoto Women's University. He received his master's degree in TESOL from Birmingham University and his research interests include Conversation Analysis, Pragmatics and teaching the spoken language.
